In her negotiations with Uncle Sam Queen Lilandsoth seems to forget that her throne at present is out of sight.

Hon. Claude Thomas, Representative in the last General Assembly from Bourbon county, wants to go as Minister to Brazil.

Already the air is rent by Democratic shrieks against the Democracy's Tariff smashing programme. The shriekers should have protested last November.

Great Britain doesn't want the United States to have Hawaii. Therefore the Kingwings have discovered that to annex Hawaii would be a very stupid thing.

Imports to this country from Sheffield fell off about $1,000,000 from 1890 to 1902. Under the McKinley law we now make the things formerly brought from Sheffield. That is the explanation.

Congressman Cummings was not far out of the way the other day when he characterized the attacks of his fellow Democrats on the pension laws as "bull-headed, brutal and brutalizing."

Lancashire cotton spinners are at last submitting to a reduction in wages and returning to work after their long strike. We do not expect to see any very extensive comment on this event in the Free-trade press.

Since the close of the war this country has paid about 2,500 millions as interest on its National debt. Total pension payments up to date aggregate 1,900 millions. We have been more liberal with the bondholder than with the soldier.

A. C. Beckwith, the new Democratic United States Senator from Wyoming, is the richest man in that state. His possessions include a bank, great herds of cattle and tracts of range, coal mines and coal and timber land. He breeds trotters on the finest farm in the Rocky Mountains. This is it again showing that the Democratic party is the foe of the plutocrat.

The Albany Times, a strong Democratic paper, calls attention to the fact that of the 277 electoral votes cast for Mr. Cleveland 138 were cast by Northern states and 139 by Southern states, and that at the 217 Democratic members of the next House of Representatives 106 are from the North and 109 from the South. In selecting three Secretaries from the South, therefore, Mr. Cleveland simply recognizes his obligations to that section.

The New York Evening Post sneers at the substitution of the American flag for the British emblem on the New York and the Paris. In the estimation of this able British organ the naturalization of the two splendid steamships, with the resulting addition of four or five great ocean greyhounds to the merchant marine and auxiliary navy of the United States is a "schoolboy affair." This is quite sad, but the chances are that the Nation will be able to endure it.

If the literary cuss who borrowed "Daniel Deronda" from The Liberator office when no one was looking at him will have the kindness to return the same he will receive many thanks and a month's subscription to the paper.

Miss Alice Worthington Handomely Entertained at Her Masquerade House.

The masquerade party given by Miss Alice Worthington in the quiet little city of Maysville was certainly a great surprise to everyone from the fact it was beyond the expectation of one and all. The characters in nearly every instance were perfectly true and typical of original impersonation. Almost every one was anxious to know the others and maintain the secrecy of their own identity. TEN KILLED.

A Terrible Catastrophe Occurs in Chicago.

The Walls of a Burned Building Fall On a Dwelling.

The Two Families Who Resided There Were Crushed as They Slept. All Unconscious. The Bodies of the Dead Were Found Five Minutes After.

CHICAGO, Feb. 28.—At 1:30 o'clock Tuesday morning the wall of a building which was lately burned at 707 Halsted street was blown down. It fell upon a two-story brick building at 765 Halsted street, occupied by the families of John Smith, saloon-keeper, and James Kunze, jeweler. Ten people were killed by the falling wall. They are: John Smith, Dollie Smith, his daughter, thirteen years of age; "Hale" Smith, son, ten years of age; Hattie Smith, daughter, four years of age; Pauline, daughter in the Smith family; Jas. Kunze, Mrs. Jas. Kunze, son of Jas. Kunze, twenty-one years of age; Mrs. Catharine Smith, wife of John Smith; Joe Kunze, bartender in Smith's saloon.

The building which collapsed was owned by John York, a large dealer in dry goods, and was destroyed by fire a few weeks ago. It was five stories high, nearly 150 feet deep, and had a heavy front of vitreous. York began to rebuild immediately after the fire, and not all of the walls were down, but he built the new wall on the top of the old one. It is supposed that the green wall was not sufficiently braced, although York said Monday night that both the engineer and himself believed it to be entirely secure.

At 3 o'clock Tuesday morning the scene was still grim, as not more bodies had been recovered. It is not believed possible at this hour that any of those buried will be rescued alive.

Indian Appropriation Bill Passed. WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—The house has passed the Indian appropriation bill under suspension of the rules. He said that if Cleveland saw fit to appoint him, however, he would be very willing to accept.

At the Opera-house on the evening of March 11th, the ex-champion John L. Sullivan will make his first appearance in Maysville.

He is inviting the attention of the public to his growing popularity as an actor in a new play written expressly for him, entitled "The Man from Boston." A brilliant man, Sullivan has engaged to help interpret the play but of course the chief interest centers in John L. Sullivan himself. He is making rapid advances as an actor and in the last act occurs a pugilistic encounter between Sullivan and Jack Ashton, which will be the most popular feature of the performance.

PRACTICAL PHILANTHROPY.

Here's a Neoplaton Man Whose Heart is in the Right Place.

THE LEDGER believes in speaking a good word for every man who does a generous deed, and speaking it while the subject is living. There's too much post-mortem praise, which does so good to any one.

Patrick Raitcan, one of the best known Irishmen in Newport, when he died a few months ago left his little homestead with a big mortgage upon it. His wife followed him to the grave a short time afterward, leaving five children, the oldest 18 years of age, to earn their own living.

The eighteen-year-old boy made a game fight, and has been providing and caring for his little flock ever since, but found that there was danger of their home being sacrificed on account of the debts upon it.

Overseer of the Poor Louis Erment heard of the case and at once he made the necessary arrangements by standing good for the debt and causing the Building Association to keep its hands off, and the young man is to have his own time now in paying for his little home.

This was but a small favor to the Overseer, but to the little fatherless and motherless orphans it meant more than the mind can of man imagine, and they all deeply appreciate the kindness.

Let the name of Louis Erment be remembered on earth, as his generous act is surely recorded in Heaven!

The Empress Frederick of Germany has, it is said, succeeded in bringing about a reconciliation between Emperor William and the Duchess of Sparta, the Emperor's favorite sister. The estrangement was because of a religious dispute.
